

IT-Enterprise Architect Career Ladder Matrix

	Enterprise Architect Family
Job Title	Enterprise Architect	Sr, Enterprise Architect	Principal Enterprise Architect
Job Code	MC0042	MC0125	MC0124
Pay Grade	75	76	76
Position Summary	This position is responsible for the overall operation of the Data Center including day to day operations, support, budget, project management and general workflows. This position will be the single point of escalation for customers and internal groups as it relates to installs and maintenance.	This position is responsible for identifying and documenting new technical opportunities while providing guidance and ensuring solutions align with the Medical school IT strategies.	This position is responsible for building a holistic view and roadmap of the Medical School's technology strategy and processes through strategic partnerships with internal technology groups to ensure that proposed technical solutions align with UMMS's overall objectives, and with business leaders, internal innovation teams, and IT functional areas by helping identify and take advantage of new technical opportunities while providing guidance and ensuring solutions align with the Medical School and IT strategies.
Essential Functions /Scope	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *This role will interact daily with the in-house maintenance teams, external vendors, and IT staff at all levels, assisting in developing, coordinating, and ensuring organizational process and procedures are followed *Facilitate data center space and cable plant including design, implementation, and maintenance of all data center infrastructure *Maintain inventory of existing Data Center hardware and software products, locations and relevant customer info. *Direct and coordinate facilities infrastructure related activities for the UMMS data center *Schedule, coordinate, and participate in all significant planned and emergency maintenance for the facility *Train and educate staff members on UMMS data center policies, SOPs, and MOPs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Act as interdepartmental liaison to customer and business units, insuring technology solutions meet business requirements. *Evaluate evolving technologies *Identify implementation risks and potential impact on the enterprise and on the achievement of scheduled objectives *Draft/develop customer and enterprise driven technology solutions to drive business effectiveness 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Technical management of the architecture team which ensures that the respective business, application, data and technologies are in line with the organization's strategies, policies and standards *Build the long-term strategic roadmap for all IT systems architecture *Develop application and infrastructure rationalization framework to reduce technical debt
Required Qualifications	Bachelor's degree in Information Technology, Information Security, or equivalent experience 5 years of experience in Information Technology, 4 of which must be in a data center facilities management capacity.	Bachelor's degree in Information Technology, Information Security, or equivalent experience 6 years of related work experience including project management	Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Information Systems Management, or equivalent experience 10 years of related work experience including program management
FLSA Status	Exempt	Exempt	Exempt
Promotional Process	Requisition	Requisition or In-family Promotion	Requisition or In-family Promotion