Federal Direct Grad PLUS Loan

Federal Direct Grad PLUS Loan Overview

- Graduate students may participate in the Federal Direct Grad PLUS loan program. Students must first use their maximum Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan eligibility prior to borrowing the Grad PLUS Loan. Under this federally guaranteed loan program, graduate students may borrow up to the total cost of attendance (as determined by the Office of Financial Aid) less any other financial aid. Students must meet all other federal eligibility requirements to qualify for this loan.
- Borrower must be credit worthy, as determined by the absence of adverse credit on credit history. This loan requires a credit evaluation that is less stringent than a private loan and offers an endorser option for borrowers who do not meet the federally mandated credit criteria. All new Federal Grad PLUS Loans have a fixed interest rate of 6.84% (on Loans first disbursed on or after 7/1/15 and before 7/1/16) and accrual of interest begins at disbursement.
- There is no grace period and the loan will come due 60 days after the last disbursement. Students in an in-school status and enrolled at least half time will automatically receive an in-school deferment.
- You will be required to sign a separate Master Promissory Note for your Grad PLUS loan. Grad PLUS Loan borrowers are required to complete a FAFSA. You will also be required to complete Federal Direct Grad PLUS online entrance counseling.
- There is a 4.272% loan origination fee which is reduced from the total amount of the loan (On loans originated on or after 10/1/15 and before 10/1/16).
- Borrower must be a US citizen or permanent resident and must be making satisfactory academic progress towards a degree. The borrower must not be in default on any prior educational loans.
- Grad PLUS Loans are made to cover fall and spring semester costs. The loan funds are disbursed (minus origination fees) in 2 equal payments, ½ for the fall semester and ½ for the spring semester.
