I represent that my thesis/dissertation and abstract are my original work. Proper attribution has been given to all outside sources. I understand that I am solely responsible for obtaining any needed copyright permissions. I have obtained needed written permission statements(s) from the owner(s) of each third-party copyrighted matter to be included in my work, allowing electronic distribution. I certify that the version of the thesis/dissertation that I submit is the same as that approved by my advisory committee. I hereby grant to the University of Massachusetts Medical School and its agents an irrevocable, non-exclusive, and royalty-free license to archive and make accessible my work in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known. I agree that the full text of my thesis/dissertation may be made available immediately for worldwide access if I do not choose to apply an embargo. If I decide to apply an embargo, my thesis/dissertation in eScholarship@UMMS will be added without the full text and only descriptive information (title, author, abstract, advisors, and departmental affiliation) will be displayed until the embargo expiration date. I retain all other ownership rights to the copyright of the dissertation. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis/dissertation. I understand that I am free to register the copyright to my work with the U.S. Copyright Office.
Review, Approval and Acceptance
