

Sponsor Supervisor	Shaila Chauhan MD
Email	Shaila.Chauhan@umassmemorial.org
Phone	508.793.6427
Support	Madeline Johns
Email	Madeline.Johns@umassmed.edu
Location	TBD
Day One Instructions	Come to the Levin Bldg, 2nd floor, to reproductive endocrinology clinic. Contact Madeline Johns with any questions.

FCE DESCRIPTION

- will learn the details of normal menstrual cycle as related to clinical gynecological endocrine problems and infertility and learn about clinical problems
- observe and may perform ,pending interest and ability gynecology and infertility ultrasounds,
- observe procedures related to infertility including intrauterine inseminations , HSGs and Sonohysterogram
- will have an opportunity to present a related topic in Reproduction Endocrine Conference on Wednesday lunch time
- will have an exposure to at least 2 afternoon clinics with repro endocrinology faculty
- will have a visit to an IVF laboratory to observe procedures and embryology for half a day or a full as time permits
- student can participate in surgery if interested and if time permits

FCE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- various gynecological endocrinopathies, eg. Amenorrhea, dysfunctional uterine bleeding, hirsutism, PCOS, etc.
- infertility evaluation and treatment
- Gyn and Inf US
- observe procedures and surgery
- know the concept of IVF and procedures

UMMS Competencies	Professional Communicator
Evaluation Type	Attendance Effort Participation
Evaluation Criteria	Clinical Skills Case Presentation Project Report Oral Presentation
Prerequisite(s)	Reading