Quality Improvement - OE 964

Brief description (200 words or less of course details):

The goals of the Quality Improvement optional enrichment elective is to facilitate training in quality improvement processes, promote participation in ongoing QI projects, and encourage creation of new student led quality improvement projects. Students will have the opportunity to work closely with residents, fellows, nursing students, and other trainees through the Trainee Quality Council, participating in training sessions, feedback sessions, and poster presentations.

Semester offered: Spring

Registration information: Contact student leaders below

Requirements for credit:

Students must attend 6 out of 7 sessions. Students must participate in the student led quality improvement project.

Contact information (student and faculty leaders):

Maria Steiner

Offered in this academic year: YES