

Project Description

- Multisystemic Therapy for Emerging Adults (MST-EA)
- Two randomized clinical trials
- Sample
 - Recruitment in Connecticut and Tennessee
 - Young adults aged 16-26
 - Recent justice involvement (arrested or released from detention/jail/prison in past 18 months)
 - Current behavioral health condition(s)
- COVID-19 questioned introduced early May 2020

Sample Description

- National Institute of Mental Health (n = 193, stopped recruiting 3/21)
- National Institute on Drug Abuse (n = 155, actively recruiting)
- Combined N = 348

- 40% Mood Disorders
- 51% Anxiety Disorder/PTSD

- 83% SUD
- 76% SUD, Cannabis

- 50% Comorbid, MH/SUD

COVID-19 & Sample

- 3% Reported COVID-19 diagnosis since March 2020
- 9% Quarantine due to self-exposure
 - Days of school/training missed due to quarantine = 0 – 30 days
 - Days of work missed due to quarantine = 0 – 9 days
- 1 participant hospitalized due to COVID-19

- 4% Reported someone within household diagnosed with COVID-19 since March 2020
- 4% Reported Household quarantine
 - Days of school/training missed due to quarantine = 5 – 14 days
 - Days of work missed due to quarantine = 0 – 5 days
- 17% reported disruption in work for someone in the home

COVID-19 & School, Work/Making Money

- Effects of COVID-19 on School/Training Program
 - Technology Issues
 - Logistical Issues
 - Learning Environment
 - Social Environment
- Effects of COVID-19 on finding a job
- Effects of COVID-19 on Work/Making Money
 - Loss of job (fired or quit) or reduced hours
 - Working Conditions
 - Family Issues
 - Social Environment
- 44% reported making the same amount of money before and during COVID-19; 30% less money; 27% more money